ORGANIZATIONS TO BE IN PARADE

From Three to Five Thousand Persons Expect to Compose Pageant.

MUSIC BY 16 BANDS.

Thousands of Visitors From Washington and Other Places Expected in Alexandria Monday.

Among the features of the parade to be given on next Monday by the George Washington Birthday Association in honor of the natal day of the first President, none will be appreciated so much by the citizens of Virginia as the appearance of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, one of the most famous volunteer military organizations in the world, who will act as the escort of Governor Henry C. Stuart. The Blues, who compose a regiment of the Virginia volunteers, will come to Alexandria in a special train, which will leave Richmond at 9 o'clock in the morning and will return to their home city immediately at the conclusion of the parade. A private car for Governor Stuart, Adjutant General W. W. Sale and the members of the governor's staff will be attached to the train. At Fredericksburg another car which will contain the members of the Fredericksburg militia will be added.

The Richmond Blues were great favorites at the Inauguration of President Wilson, in Washington, last March and were voted by military experts as being the most soldierly lot of men in the pageant. Their appearance along the line of march was the signal for great outbursts of applause from the spectators. They will bring their organization to Alexandria intact.

According to the estimates which have been made by the military committee of the parade there will be from 3,000 to 5,000 men of the regular army in line, 2,000 to 3,000 Virginia volunteers and High School cadets, and 1,500 to 2,000 men representing the various fraternal organizations which will form the third section.

Sixteen bands, headed by the famous Marine Band, of Washington, will furnish the music. Among the bands will be one local band which will attract especial attention. It is the band of the American Indian Guards, an organization which is connected with the Improved Order of Red men. This is composed of lads between twelve and sixteen years of age. While they have been organized for more than a year, they will make their first appearance at a real big celebration on next Monday.

Columbia Lodge, No. 126, Loyal Order of Moose, of Washington, have accepted the invitation of the Alexandria Lodge of Moose, to assist in the celebration next Monday. More than 500 members will come to Alexandria. The Fifth United States Cavalry Band, all members of the Order of Moose, will accompany them and an invitation has been extended to the members of Congress affiliated with the order of Moose to join in the festivities. It is expected the following will accept the invitation. Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, Speaker Champ Clark, Senator John W. Kern, Representative A. W. Lafferty, and others.

The Monticello Guards of Charlottesville, the Culpeper Minute Men and the Warrenton Rifles have notified the reception committee that they have accepted the invitation to participate in the festivities. The Southern Railway Company will furnish free transportation to these commands.

Alexandria citizens will keep open house on Monday. Many relatives and friends from surrounding counties will arrive here on next Friday to spend the week-end and witness the celebration on Monday. It is expected that from 10,000 to 15,000 people will be brought from Washington. In addition to the regular service furnished by the steam and trolley trains a special boat has been engaged which will have a capacity of 2,300 persons.

The committee of Alexandria-Washington Lodge (C. B. Swan chairman), will proceed to Washington about noon Monday to act as an escort to Vice President Marshall and party, and will leave Washington with their guests on the palace car Mount Vernon at 1:30 p. m. The car will proceed direct to Mount Vernon and upon its return will convey the party direct to Alexandria-Washington Lodge room where the guests will be received by the Masonic Memorial Association. The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall will be entertained at the residence of Hon. C. C. Carlin, on north Washington street, from 5 to 7 p. m. At 7 o'clock the Vice President will attend a stated communication of Alexandria-Washington Lodge which will be held in the Elks' Lodge room. At 8 o'clock the Vice President will be guest at the banquet to be given in Elks' Hall by Alexandria-Washington Lodge. The speakers on the occasion will be Vice President Marshall, Senator C. A. Swanson, Most Worshipful P. K. Bauman, Grand Master of Masons of Virginia, General Shyrock, Grand Master of Maryland, and others.

Indications are that the celebration this year will be one of the greatest in the history of the town. With the presence of the Vice-President of the United States and the new Governor of Virginia, and the probable presence of the President, Alexandria will do every thing in its power to establish a record for entertainment that will exceed anything that it has done previously.

A meeting of all the committees will be held tonight in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce when a number of features of the parade will be discussed.

At a meeting of the Richmond Howitzers last night, the battery decided to decline the invitation of the George Washington Birthday Association, of Alexandria, to participate in the big celebration in that city on Monday. This step was taken when it was found that no definite arrangements for the transportation of the battery had been communicated to its commanding officer, Captain William M. Myers, and it was not known when the special train left Richmond, for Alexandria, or at what time it was due to return. Eighty enlisted men of the organization had announced their intention of going on the trip when the matter was broached on Tuesday night but in view of the facts they changed their minds.

Major E. W. Bowles, commanding officer of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, through Lieutenant J. R. Tucker, adjutant, issued orders covering the movement of the battalion to Alexandria. First call will be at 7:45 o'clock and assembly at 8 o'clock. The special train for the transportation of the battalion will leave Byrd street station at 8:30 o'clock. Major Bowles expects the full strength of the battalion to make the trip.

The Richmond, Fredricksburg and Potomac Railroad will furnish free transportation to the Blues.

VIRGINIA MINISTER INDICTED.

Accused by Federal Court of Violating White Slave Act.

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 20.—An indictment containing five counts, charging the Rev. B. F. Landis, of Prices, Montgomery county, with violating the Mann white slave act, was reported Wednesday by the grand jury in the Federal Court.

The first count charges that on September 1 Landis caused to be transported in interstate commerce from Prices to Bluefield, W. Va., Lizzie Jones for immoral purposes.

Landis, Mrs. Jones and several of her relatives, are here awaiting court action. Landis is free, under $1,000 bail. It is said the Governor likely will press for trial of the case at this term of court, and the trial may begin today or Friday.

MASONIC NOTICE.

A stated communication of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, No. 22, A. F., & A. M., will be held at Elks' Lodge room on Monday, February 23, 1914, at 7 o'clock, p. m., promptly. By order of the Worshipful Master.

A. G. UHLER,
Secretary.

HOUSE PASSES THE ROLLING STOCK ACT

Measure Privides For Distribution of Taxes Among The Counties.

ANTI-GAMBLING BILL.

Act Drastic and Forbids All Games of Chance Under Penalty of Fine and Imprisonment.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 20.—The rolling stock bill, providing for the pro rata distribution of assesments on railroads to the cities and counties through which the railroads operate, was passed in the house yesterday by a vote of 75 to 14, the delegates voting against the measure representing the cities which, if the act becomes effective, would be deprived of considerable revenues from the railroads.

The House, by a vote of 66 to 13, passed the Stephenson Anti-Gambling bill, which prohibits all games of chance under penalty of fine and imprisonment. Matching coins for drinks is a violation of the law. The measure will have strong opposition in the Senate.

The House concurred in Senate amendments and passed the following bills, which will now go to the governor for his signature: Providing for the use of certain safety appliances in factories, shops and manufacturing establishments, and making provisions how such establishments shall be lighted and be provided that all doors shall open outward, and defining the duties of the State Highway Commission, authorizing the Commissioners to call into consideration the professors of engineering in certain State institutions, and providing that convicts shall not be worked on the roads in any one county for a longer period than five years.

Following the principles of the Kenyon-Webb act, an anti-shipping bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator Mapp. It is designed to prevent the shipment of intoxicants from "wet" into "dry" territory, and prohibits the shipment of liquors from "wet" points outside of the state into "dry" territory in Virginia except in small quantities for personal use, the limit being one gallon, which must be personally receipted for by the person receiving it.

DESERTS HUSBAND AND BABY.

Cape Charles Girl Found at Newport News—Returns Home With Husband.

Newport News, Va., Feb. 20.—Craving excitement which could not be obtained in her home town, Cape Charles, Va., Ranie Davis, the girl-wife of Walter Davis, a farmer of the Eastern Shore, deserted her husband and four-months' old baby last week and came to Newport News. Her husband found her in a house in the "red light" district. The police say that she has been staying there ever since she arrived here.

When his appeals to her to return to her home and to her baby, which he declared, was very much in need of a mother's care and attention, failed to move the woman, the distracted husband appealed to the police, and the girl-wife faced Justice Brown in the Police Court Tuesday. She again flatly refused to go back home with her husband, even when threatened with a term in the city jail.

Seeing that she would not return to her home, Justice Brown found her guilty of a charge of being not of good fame, and required a bond of $250 for three months. Being without friends, the girl, who gives her age as seventeen, was unable to furnish the bond, and was sent to jail. A few hours behind the bars, however, convinced her of the error of her way and she announced later in the day that she was willing to return home with her husband.

Davis and his wife left for home Tuesday night.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson, widow of the noted author, died suddenly yesterday at Santa Barbara, of apoplexy.

That more than 50,000 men, women and children have perished in the northern section of the Japanese empire, where millions are starving as a result of the failure of the rice crop, was the information brought to Tokyo in advices received from government investigators. The method of relief afforded by the government has sufficed to relieve the distress in great measure, but epidemic of disease has broken out and the nurses and physicians sent to the stricken sections have been unable to cope with the situation. Sakura-Jima, the volcano which recently killed several hundred persons by its eruption, is still throwing out lava, and many earthquake shocks are felt in its vicinity.

While one man held Mrs. Marie Blackman, nineteen years old, in her home in Philadelphia yesterday, another cut off her long silky black hair close to the scalp. The men made their entrance to the house through a rear door, and at the point of revolvers forced the woman to submit. Other articles of value in the house were not disturbed. Mrs. Blackman has been so ill, as the result of her experience, that she is in constant attendance by a physician.

Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs, of New York, is reported to have won $4,000 in one night at the Beach Club, at Palm Beach, Fla., and $600 and $700 on other nights, at bridge. Her winnings are said to be larger than those of any other woman here this season.

All red or black flags and all banners and signs with inscriptions offensive to organized government, to morals, or sacrilegious in character, will be forbidden in public parades and assemblages if a bill introduced by Assemblyman Phelan in the New York Legislature passes. The use of the national flag on such occasions would be made obligatory.

The sight of an automobile hearse, containing a body, and ablaze from end to end, attracted 2,000 pedestrians on lower Broadway, New York, yesterday. Harry Duris, the chauffeur, swathed in a big fur coat, was slightly burned before volunteers stripped off the garment. The body, that of a woman, being taken to a cemetery, was removed from the blazing hearse by the police. Firemen then put out the fire, which had started from the motor.

Shattered in health, Carlton Gardner, at one time a noted tennis player, stabbed himself with a scarfpin while on a visit to members of his family in Palo Alto, Cal. Gardner was taken to a hospital where it was found that the pin had penetrated the lower portion of the heart. His condition is considered serious. Gardner has been ill for some time, due largely to worry because he was not winning his way as an artist. Gardner played in many tennis tournaments, including those of Newport, R. I., and Del Monte, Col. He has won several Pacific coast championships. In 1912 he was ranked among the ten best players in the United States.

STATUE OF WASHINGTON.

Replica of Famous Effigy to be Presented to Great Britain.—To Investigate Soldiers Home.

(Special Dispatches to the Gazette.)

Richmond, Va., Feb. 20.—By unanimous consent the House today, on motion of Delegate Reed, of Portsmouth, agreed to present a replica of the famous Houdon statue of George Washington to Great Britain.

Richmond, Feb. 20.—The House today on a resolution of Delegate Toney, ordered an investigation of Lee Camp Soldiers' Home. A House committee of five will be named to make the investigation, which shall only apply, however, to "food and clothing provided."

DIED.

BANDITS BOARD MARDI GRAS TRAIN

Three Experienced Knights of the Road Obtain Rich Plunder.

$100,000 IS SECURED.

Outlaws Sing at Work While Clerks Look On—Pullman Cars Deserted—One Man is Stabbed.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 20.—Three bandits held up and robbed Queen and Crescent train No. 7, a few miles north of Birmingham late last night and escaped with more than $100,000.

Loaded with passengers enroute to the Mardi Gras at New Orleans, the flyer was jerked to a sudden stop when the engineer heard the command "Throw up your hands," and turned to look into the muzzle or a revolver.

The engine and the mail car were deteched from the rest of the train and run down the track about a mile, while two of the masked men coolly arranged the sacks of registered mail for their getaway.

The long line of Pullmans were deserted for more than an hour.

In the wild rush of the locomotive to the suburbs of this city where the bandits got off, A. B. Mellville, chief clerk of the postal car, was stabbed in the shoulder during scuffle.

The robbers in their haste overlooked a sack of registered mail containing $10.00. One of the clerks had kicked this bag under a table at one end of the car.

It is supposed the robbers boarded the train at Chattanooga and waited until aftermidnight before making their way to the mail car and engine. They did not molest any of the sleeping passengers.

The deliberate manner in which they ransacked the mail coach leads the detectives to believe that they are former employes of the service.

No clue has been found to the identity of the trio since they jumped off the engine just north of here near midnight.

From accounts of the five mail clerks, the robbers must have been old hands at the business, and went about the work whistling, humming and passing pleasantries with the clerks who were standing helpless.

It is believed the men who committed the robbery are the same who held up and robbed a Queen and Crescent train just below Birmingham a short time ago.

In this former robbery something like $90,000 was obtained and no clue was ever found to the guilty men

HITCHING COST BOY'S LIFE.

Ten-Year Old Receives Fatal Hurts Behind Father's Car.

Riverton, N. J., Feb. 20.—Robert, 10-year-old son of Isaac Bell, was fatally injured while "hitching" behind an automobile driven by his father, Wednesday night. The lad was blinded by the fine snow thrown off by the chains on the rear wheels and let go his rope, the end of which caught under his sled and threw him heavily on the frozen snow and ice chunks which littered the roadway striking on his left side.

He walked home and was telling his mother about the accident when he suddenly was taken ill. He grew steadily worse and died in about two hours later.

SNOWBALL DESTROYS EYE.

The winter pastime of snowballing cost John Fall, eleven year old son of Mrs. J. P. Fall, of Roanoke, Va., his right eye.

The boy was injured Tuesday afternoon while playing with companions. He was taken to a hospital where surgeons removed the eye.

SNOW UP TO BARN EAVES.

Bradford County Isolated by the Greatest Drifts Yet.

Towanda, Pa., Feb. 20.—With two feet of snow on the ground, and more falling nearly all the time, Bradford county is experiencing the unusual. The snow was never deeper in this region and yet sleighing was never so bad.

Business in the country districts is paralyzed. No sooner are roads opened than they drift full again.

On many farms the snow is drifted as high as the eaves of barns.

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE.

New York, Feb. 20.—Among the reasons why Mrs. Lottie Carmichael, a sister of Mrs. Farquharson and Mrs. Wheelock, Fifth Avenue modistes, wants a separation from Jas. Carmichael, a manufacturer of embroidery, at 1026 Sixth Avenue, as set forth in a suit filed today in the Supreme Court, were the following:

Irascible disposition.
Mania for smashing clocks.
Struck her with a glass.
Threatened to throw her out of second story window.
Choked her.
Kissed another woman.
Threw a box of cigars at her.
Made love to her daughter.
Kept everybody in the house awake at night.
Tried to make her take off her shoes.
Said she was lazy.
Tried to throw her into the Hudson.
Called her an idiot, an imp and a pest.
Struck her grandson with a folded newspaper.
Smashed a glass of whiskey on the dining table.
Struck her in the face with a switch.
Threw chairs at her.
Dislocated a "floating rib."
Kicked in the door.
Wrenched her shoulder.
Poked his finger in her eye.
Drank whiskey and beer mixed.
Met a married woman in Brooklyn.
"Got shot at by Jane Doe's husband."

OPPOSITION TO THE COMPENSATION ACT

Virginia Manufacturers Attack Liability Measure Before Committee.

DELEGATE IS BITTER.

Alleges That it is the Most "Unjust Measure Ever Presented to a Civilized Community."

Richmond, Va., Feb. 20.—Manufacturers and employes of labor, large and small, descended in an avalanche upon the senate chamber last night to oppose the passage of the Wendenburg-Chalkley workingmen's compensation bill, now pending before the Courts of Justice Committees of the two houses. The joint committee gave ear to a hearing which stretched from 8:15 o'clock until midnight, and adjourned to take up the bill in executive session at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Protests were registered by speakers representing practically every industry in the State, from the shipbuilding enterprises of Newport News to the mining industries of the counties on the West Virginia border. The unanimity of their attack caused friends of the compensation act to guess invidiously at its origin, one of two speakers venturing the opinion that the movement was inspired by a hostile central bureau in Richmond which has circularized the State in an effort to strangle the bill.

Alone in the army of speakers from the ranks of the employers Alex. B. Guigon, represent... public Service Association of V... spoke in favor of the bill. T... anization he represented he s... guarded it as sound in princip... fair in most of its provisions. ... of the sections, however, he sa... objectionable. He offered a ... of amendments which he ask... committee to consider in prep... the final draft.

The attack upon the bill assumed varying degrees of hostility. A. B. Philpot, member of the House from Henry county, spoke heatedly of the injustice the measure would work in the large lumber idustry in which he was interested and denounced the bill as "the most unjust measure that was ever presented to a civilized community."

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Flames Fanned to Fury When She Runs up Cellar Stairs in Panic of Fright.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 20.—Burned from head to foot when her clothing was ignited by a live coal from the furnace she was raking, Miss Bertha Mair, 55 years old, of No. 5955 McCallam street, died yesterday in the Germantown Hospital, four hours after she was admitted. She was terribly seared about the legs, arms and body. Even her hair was consumed.

When the victim found herself enveloped by flames she ran screaming up the cellar stairs. Her flig... served only to increase the vigor of the blaze. Her sister,, Miss Esther Mair, upon sight of the flaming woman, ran into the street in search of ai... Dr. Harry Bonsall was just entering the publication office conduced by his father just across the street. He rushed into the Mair home and wraped his overcoat about the burning woman, at the same time trying to beat out the flames. His hands were painfully burned in the effort.

ANOTHER FRIGID WAVE

Twenty-Degree Drop in Temperature in This Vicinity Predicted By Night

The people of this city waded through slush and rain yesterday, except by risking life and limb by stepping with unexpected suddenness on a yet lingering hummock of ice on sidewalk or in street.

But there was none of the slushiness or week-old snow or foggy rain today.

But it was cold. The prophesy is for a fall of 20 degrees before nightfall and this means that the pavements wet with rain and with melting snow will become as slick as greased glass and the footing will be less secure than even in the last six days.

Throughout yesterday the weather was disagreeable, but the thermometer stayed about 32 degrees for the greater part of the time.

How long this second cold wave will last is not predicted, but from the middle west there is a chance of it lasting several days at least.

A part of the city fire department and a number of volunteer firemen were engaged in washing away the snow and ice from King street last night in order to have that thoroughfare in readiness for Monday's parade. The Columbia engine was used on the occasion.

Yesterday afternoon a snow plow was put into operation on Washington street, removing and loosening up the snow from that thoroughfare. It is the hope of the city authorities that by Monday all of the snow will have been removed from most of the streets over which the parade will pass.

The cold northeast wind prevailing at an early hour this morning brought more snow between ten and eleven o'clock. The weather bureau predicts snow tonight.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. Birrell has introduced in the House of Delegates (by request) a bill to provide for payments by counties and cities to the State school fund and to give local option in regard to a school poll tax and in regard to compulsory school attendance.

Messrs. Birrell and Oliver have introduced a joint resolution in relation to immigration from Southern Europe and Western Asia.

LECTURE TONIGHT.

Rev. C. R. Strausburg, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, will give an illustrated lecture at the church tonight beginning at 8 o'clock. His subject will be "John Bunyan and his Pilgrim's Progress." A silver offering will be taken at the door.

COMMEMORATE SERVICES.

Special commemorative services in honor of the birthday of Washington, who was a vestryman of Christ Church, will be held in that historic old edifice on Sunday morning. A programme of patriotic music from the Episcopal hymn book will be rendered and the Rev William Jackson Morton, rector of the church, will preach a sermon on "The Mission of Great Men as exemplified in the life of Washington." The tablet erected in the interior of the church will be decorated. A special invitation has been extended to the Masons and all patriotic bodies of Alexandria to attend these services. The pew which was occupied by General Washington and later by General Robert E. Lee, who was also a vestryman of the church, will be reserved for strangers.

The Decoration Committee of the George Washington Birthday Association parade request all citizens to decorate their homes and business places as early as possible 19 adv.

HOWARD BRO.'S PRICE LIST

Housekeepers Will Find Many Things of Interest in Advertisement.

F. B. Howard & Bro.'s advertisement will be found in the Gazette The members of this firm, though young in the mercantile world, have already made their establishment one of Alexandria's fixed institutions.

Their stock of fancy and staple groceries is unsurpassed in this city and their prices are cut to the lowest.

All wide-awake housekeepers read Howard's advertisments, and profit by the bargains offered.

INJURED BY FALL OF TANK.

Ulysses S. Roberts, son of Officer J. T. Roberts, had one of his feet badly injured while at the Mutual Ice Company's plant this morning by the fall of a four-hundred pound tank. He was taken to the Alexandria Hospital where Dr. Arthur Snowden took four stiches in the wound.

KERRICK STILL MISSING.

Whereabouts of Alexandrian Are Unknown to Relatives.

The disappearance of Walter P. Kerrick, from his home, 516 Cameron street, a week ago, is still causing his relatives and friends concern. A vigorous search has failed to reveal any clue to his present whereabouts.

Members of his family believe he was taken with illness while in Washington and has gone to a hospital in that city, but no trace of him has been found at any of the hospitals in that city.

Mr. Kerrick lived with his mother at 516 Cameron street. He has blue eyes, is about six feet tall and weighs 165 pounds, and is 43 years old. He is unmarried and is a well-known contracting carpenter and a deacon in the First Baptist Church

"Easy Street"

"Easy Street," ah, that's the place a of us want to go.
But it's off the end of "Hard Road," and the travel's hard and slow.
Many of us cannot climb the hills o scale the lofty rocks,
Survive the many hard falls, an recover from the shocks;
But keep on pressing on and on and some day you may get there
And breathe the balmy fragrance of it's fresh and wholesome air.
The idea is that we must work and earn the good things of life in order to enjoy them. Come to me for your next suit.

REWICKING Made Easy

EASY wicking is only one of the many improvements that make the new Perfection Oil Heater (Triangle trade mark) superior to any oil heater ever made before.

Wick and carrier are in one. Just turn up the old wick, slip it out and drop another in place.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

This New Model Perfection Heater is smokeless, odorless and economical.

The shape of the font, wide and shallow, allows the oil to pass readily up the wick and insures an even, glowing heat even when the font is almost empty. The font holds more than a gallon of oil and an indicator shows the amount of fuel left at a glance.

There is no smoke or smell with a Perfection. The automatic-locking flame-spreader prevents smoking. No gallery to unscrew, or catch oil and dust.

Made with vitreous blue enamel or plain steel drums. Ornamental, inexpensive, lasts for years. Easily cleaned and moved about.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

Young Woman Said to Have Had Stolen Ring From Man.

Richmond, Feb. 20.—Laura Brewer, a girl of twenty, childish in appearance, but suspected at being an old hand at the game of enticing valuables from unsuspecting quarry, was Wednesday afternoon arrested by Detective Sergeant John Wiley on the charge of stealing a $500 diamond from Chasie Trafieri.

She was aided in the alleged theft of the ring by a male partner, who had not been located at a late hour last night.

The theft of the ring occurred several days ago while Mr. Trafieri was making the rounds of his properties. The Brewer woman, with her companion, were present at one of the houses in the West End at which Mr. Trafieri called, and greatly admired the ring which he wore.

Upon asking to see it more closely the owner took it off his finger and she took it. During the conversation which was going on the woman quietly walked away and disappeared; and a few moments later, while the excited owner was searching for her, the man who was her companion also disappeared.

Nothing was learned until the ring was pawned at a Broad street shop for $100 by the man.

When searched the detectives found four rings on the woman, two of which were diamonds, one a turquois and the other of a cheap variety; a gold locket, in which appeared the picture of a young girl, on a chain; a cameo bracelt of handsome design and a silver mesh bag. The sum of $10.01 was found on her person.

A number of pawn tickets from shops in Pittsburg, Pa., were also found on her. Most of these tickets were for rings of various values.

Two lives were lost and damage estimated at from $500,000 to $1,000,000 was wrought by the storm which sent a record rain to six southern California counties during the last two days. Near Los Angeles from six to eight inches of rain were recorded between midnight Tuesday and 8 A. M. yesterday. The orange-growing section and the railroads suffered most.

CODE SHOULD BE REVISED.

It is suggested that the difficulties which every member of Assembly experiences in drafting bills should of itself be argument enough for the pasage of the Williams bill providing for a complete revision of the Code of Virginia. No member can attempt to amend any section of the Code without finding himself in such a maze of enactments that the t is often as long as the bill itself. The Richmond Times-Dispatch says:

"It is not to be wondered at. More than twenty-five years have elapsed since the Assembly of Virginia authorized a revision of our statute law Since that time it is safe to say tha at least 20 per cent of the sections have been amended, while at least 1,000 new laws have been passed which should be numbered as a part of the Code. Old sections have been amended, changed, revised and enacted again; new laws have been passed time and time again on subjects covered by existing statutes. The whole body of our civil and criminal law is in a tangle that beggars discription.

"Other interests than those of our lawyers are to be served by a complete revision of the Code. Every business and professional man should have at hand, if he desires it, the law of the Commonwealth in which he lives, published in such form as to make it intelligible to one without technical training. This is at present impossible. The old Code is now worthless; Pollard's revision, though a monument to the energy of the present Attorney-General, is bulky unhandy and all but out-of-date through the enactment of laws subsequent to its issue. The two volumes of the Code as prepared by Mr. Pollard, and the biennial supplements printed since that time, make up a library at once too large for convenience and too expensive for general circulation.

"The Williams bill, which is most carefully drawn, provides for the nomination of ten lawyers by the Supreme Court of Appeals, from whom the Governor is to select three. These are to have ample authority to digest, prepare for the press and issue the Code in a single volume if practicable. An appropriation of $40,000 is contemplated by the bill but, if the revision be good and the Code be sold at a reasonable figure we feel sure that a profit will accrue in time. But even if there were no return to the State, the revision would be worth its cost.

UNWRITTEN LAW OF SEA REVERSED.

The unwritten law of the sea which gives to women and children the first claim upon safety was, it is alleged, reversed on the decks of the sinking liner Monroe, according to testimony given before the Federal Probe Board in Philadelphia yesterday. Martin Reinhardsten, a survivor of the foundered liner's crew, told the Government inspectors who are trying Captain Berry, master of the Nantucket, which rammed and sank the Old Dominion vessel, that the first lifeboat that left the Monroe held 15 men and one woman. He also testified that the boat, which was under the command of Captain Johnson, did not contain any one whom he could identify as a passenger except the woman.

DENIES BY ALIBI.

Castillo Asserts Americans Can Prove he and Band Innocent.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 20.—With every appearance of fright, Maximo Castillo arrived in El Paso yesterday afternoon, closely guarded by Major Greene and a detachment of the Ninth United States Cavalry. Anticipating an attempt to kill Castillo, a strong cordon of the Twentieth Infantry was thrown about the station, but there was no disorder. The station was jammed by people of all classes, including a large number of Mexicans. Castillo, his wife and Juan Garcia were hurried into an automobile truck and taken to their cells in the stone guard house at Fort Bliss.

Castillo, worn and wasted by the hardships of his last two weeks' desperate flight from General Villa's scouts, trembled with nervousness as he talked of his experience.

"It is the waiting," he said, "that is terrible. I see in all the papers that the United States authorities will hand me over to Villa, to be shot without trial. Not that I am afraid"—here he straightened up and his shriveled, white mustached face was lit with a gay smile "but I just want to know if it is true I don't think it is possible that any civilized nation would send a man to certain death without a hearing.

"I am not responsible for the Cumbre Tunnel disaster. I was not there at the time, and I can prove it by American citizens.

"Since before Christmas I have not been out of a territory roughly bounded by Palomas, Ascension, Corralitos and San Pedro. I have spent most of my time between Palomas and Ascension. I did not even hear of the Cumbre disaster until 12 days ago, when word was brought to me from the American side, at the same time that Villa's soldiers began to press my men hard.

"I was shocked and horrified—I who could not kill a living thing, to be accused of such an act.

"Who did it? Perhaps it was some of my own men. I do not know."

TWO HOME WOMEN TALKED ABOUT HAIR

Two women met in our store the other day, when one of them said:

"My, how pretty your hair looks! What have you been doing to it?"

"Why, I have been using Harmony Hair Beautifier for the past two weeks," was the reply.

"Why, indeed!" replied the first woman, "that is just what I am using. Isn't it great, and don't you think my hair shows a lot of improvement?"

Harmony Hair Beautifier is becoming all the rage among both men and women who are particular in the care of their hair. It is just what it is named—a hair beautifier. It seems to polish and burnish the hair, making it glossy, silky-soft, and more easy to put up in graceful, wavy folds that "stay put." Contains no oil, and will not change color of hair nor darken it. Simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This liquid shampoo gives instantaneous rich, fooming lather that immediately penetrates to every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guarantee to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall stores, and in this town only by Wm. P. Taylor, druggist, 616 King street.

MAIN WITNESS AS SLAYER

Woman Says She Saw Him Run With Bloody Knife.

Washington, Pa., Feb. 20.—In the trial of Andrew Seneutka, for the murder of Frank Surco, a mysterious woman was injected into the case by the defense. This woman, who later proved to be Mrs. Balva Metz of Donoras, took the stand and testified that she had seen the actual murderer of Serco running from the scene of the crime with his blood-stained knife in hand.

Asked if the man she accused of being the assassin was in court, she declared he was, and pointed out Joseph Lofer, who has figured as the chief witness for the Commonwealth.

The case was delayed pending a further investigation, and Lofer was held to await the outcome.

GHOULS RAID OLD VAULT.

Remove Even Clothing From Coffins of Three Children.

Seacancus, N. J., Feb. 20.— The bones of three children laid to rest in a burial vault in a cemetery here more than foty years ago have been surreptitiously removed, it was disclosed yesterday. The heavy doors of the vault were found broken open and on the floor lay three of the seven coffins in the tomb, from which the bones and rust and even the grave cloths had been taken.

The vault was built 50 years ago and is the property of Abel I. Smith, a New York lawyer, who said today that it had been broken open four times in the last two years. He added that he could not understand why the tomb should be invaded by ghouls.

PUNISHMENT FOR MASHERS.

Not Men Enough to be Sent to Jail Says Sagacious Judge.

Kansas City, Feb. 20.— Three young mashers who saved their umbrellas for a rainy day, stood on Main street between 10 and 11th streets, ready to escort any young woman who would accept their overtures. It was a damp job waiting in the rain, and to make it worse they were arrested. One is 18 years old, the other two 17. They were arrested on the complaint of a store manager, that they had been trying to flirt with the girl clerks.

"Your'e young sissies and you serve no useful purpose in the scheme of mankind. Your parents ought to take you all and lay you over barrels and lambast you until you reformed. It wouldn't reform you to send you to jail so I'll just leave it to your parents to thrash you. That's the best remedy I can think of,' 'said the Police Justice today.

Richmond Man Held.

Jersey City, N J., Feb. 20.—James Dentley, twenty-five years old, of Richmond, Va., was held on $1,000 bail yesterday to await extradition papers from Richmond on a charge of grand larceny. It is alleged he took jewelry valued at $1,500 from his mother's home, and coming North, sold it, reinvesting the money in other jewels, which he presented to a girl living in Ashland avenue. The girl's name was not mentioned.

O CORN-LESS JOY!

"GETS-IT" FOR CORNS

Nothing in the World Can Beat it for Corns and Calluses.

Now try the different, way, the new way, the absolutely sure way, the painless way of getting rid of those corns that have pestered the life and soul out of you for such a long time.

"I Feel Like Hugging Somebody. My Corns Are Gone At Last. 'GETS-IT' Did it."

Drop everything else and use "GETS-IT." A few drops applied in a few seconds does the work. Useless junk like flesh-eating salves that make corns swell, cotton rings that make corns stand up like pop-eyes, razors, corn-diggers, scissors, and files that make corns grow faster, are all done for. "GETS-IT" is on a new principle, makes corns shrivel, vanish. It can't stick to the stocking, or hurt the flesh.

"GETS-IT" is sold by all druggists 25c, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.
